

Manila Tour ITINERARY

AUGUST 18, 2024
(SUNDAY)

7:30 AM - 7:45 AM - DEPARTURE FROM LUXENT HOTEL

(9:00 AM - 12:00 NN)

FORT SANTIAGO

Today, the fort, its bastions, and the prison dungeons for criminals used by the Spanish officials, is now part of a historical park which also includes Plaza Moriones and several ruins. The park houses well-preserved legacies from the Spanish colonial period including memorabilia of José Rizal at the Rizal Shrine, a replica of his ancestral house in Laguna province.

INTRAMUROS

Intramuros, or the 'Walled City', is one of the oldest districts of Manila, built on the south bank of the Pasig River around 1571. It was built by the Spaniards – more specifically by Miguel Lopez de Legaspi – and is bound on all sides by moats and thick, high walls, with some over 6 meters high.

SAN AGUSTIN CHURCH AND MANILA CATHEDRAL

This all-stone church complex, completed in 1607, is the oldest stone church in the country, being relatively unchanged since its construction. San Agustin is built out of locally quarried adobe stone and lime mortar, and is designed in the Neoclassical-Baroque style
