

Consultation Meeting on Development of the New Strategic and Corporate Plans for the Commission

Pohnpei, Federated States of Micronesia 19-20 September 2016

Provisional Agenda

WCPFC-STP-2016-01 13 September, 2016

Western & Central Pacific Fisheries Commission Strategic Planning Consultation Meeting

Pohnpei, Federated States of Micronesia September 19-20, 2016

Meeting Objectives

- Define the Commission's strategic priorities and direction for the next ten years and lay the groundwork to begin working towards those strategic priorities during the next three years.
- Understand the diversity of perspectives gleaned from stakeholders about the Commission's current state, contextual trends, and implications for the Commission's future direction.
- Discuss and decide how the Commission can better align and prioritize its efforts with its core mission of ensuring the long-term conservation and sustainable use of highly migratory fish stocks in the western and central Pacific Ocean.

Desired Meeting Outcomes

- Draft strategic priorities to achieve by the year 2027.
- Draft three-year corporate plan to work towards the strategic priorities.

Meeting Agenda

Monday, September 19

Goal for Day 1: Provisionally support a working draft of the Commission's strategic priorities for the year 2027.

8:30 am Opening and Welcome

WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE

Overview of Meeting and Structure of Strategic Planning Process

Tushar Kansal, Consensus Building Institute

Consultation Meeting Overview:

- Day 1: Exploration of stakeholder perspectives & defining the Commission's ten-year strategic priorities.
- Day 2: Operationalizing the Commission's strategic priorities through a three-year corporate plan.

9:00 am Exploring Stakeholder Perspectives and Their Implications for the Commission's Current State and Future Direction

Presentation of stakeholder perspectives, Tushar Kansal

Guiding questions:

- What ideas and priorities do you agree with?
- What surprised you?

	 How do these perspectives influence your thinking about what the Commission's strategic priorities should be?
10:00 am	Tea Break
10:30 am	Exploring Ten-Year Strategic Priorities for the Commission
	Presentation of straw proposal, Tushar Kansal
	 Guiding questions: What value does the Commission's work provide to you and your constituents? What important future trends do you see? What do you think the Commission's top five priorities should be?
12:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm	Refining Strategic Priorities Guiding questions: In ten years' time, how will we know whether we have successfully achieved each strategic priority? What will the desired end-state for each strategic priority look like?
2:30 pm	Tea Break
3:00 pm	Defining Strategic Priorities Guiding questions: How many strategic priorities should the Commission adopt? What criteria should we consider in deciding which strategic priorities to adopt? Which strategic priorities should we provisionally support as a working draft for day 2 of the consultation meeting?
4:30 pm	Synthesis of Day 1 and Preview of Day 2
5:00 pm	Adjourn

Southern Southern
9:00 am Operationalizing Our Priorities Guiding question: Given the ten-year strategic priorities that consultation workshop participants provisionally supported on day 1, how should the Commission move forward during the next three years? 10:30 am Tea Break 11:00 am Operationalizing Our Priorities (continued) Guiding question: What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year priorities? 12:00 pm Lunch Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed strategic priorities? Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian
Guiding question: Given the ten-year strategic priorities that consultation workshop participants provisionally supported on day 1, how should the Commission move forward during the next three years? 10:30 am Tea Break 11:00 am Operationalizing Our Priorities (continued) Guiding question: What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year priorities? 12:00 pm Lunch 1:00 pm Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 12:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian	8:30 am
Given the ten-year strategic priorities that consultation workshop participants provisionally supported on day 1, how should the Commission move forward during the next three years? 10:30 am Tea Break 11:00 am Operationalizing Our Priorities (continued) Guiding question: What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year priorities? 12:00 pm Lunch 1:00 pm Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 2:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian	9:00 am	Operationalizing Our Priorities
11:00 am Operationalizing Our Priorities (continued) Guiding question: What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year priorities? 12:00 pm Lunch 1:00 pm Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 2:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? 2:45 pm Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian		 Given the ten-year strategic priorities that consultation workshop participants provisionally supported on day 1, how should the Commission
Guiding question: • What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year priorities? 12:00 pm Lunch 1:00 pm Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: • Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? • Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? • Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 2:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: • What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian	10:30 am	Tea Break
What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year priorities? 1:00 pm Lunch Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 2:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian	11:00 am
1:00 pm Synthesis of Meeting Outcomes and Confirmation of Draft Strategic Priorities and Operational Plans Guiding questions: Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian		 What would a three-year roadmap look like such that the Commission moves thoughtfully and deliberately towards achieving the ten-year
Operational Plans Guiding questions: • Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? • Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? • Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 2:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: • What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? 2:45 pm Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian	12:00 pm	Lunch
 Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully forward towards achieving the strategic priorities? 2:30 pm Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process Guiding questions: What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? 2:45 pm Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian 	1:00 pm
Guiding questions: • What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? 2:45 pm Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian		 Given the breadth of discussions throughout the consultation meeting, do the proposed strategic priorities address the key challenges and respond to the future trends facing the Commission? Do the proposed strategic priorities provide useful guidance for the Commission's future direction? Do the proposed three-year plans move the Commission thoughtfully
• What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13 in December? 2:45 pm Closing remarks WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian	2:30 pm	Next Steps in the Strategic Planning Process
WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE WCPFC Chairwoman, Rhea Moss-Christian		 What will the process be for developing the strategic and corporate plans following the September consultation meeting and leading up to WCPFC13
3:00 pm Conclude	2:45 pm	WCPFC Executive Director, Feleti Teo, OBE
	3:00 pm	Conclude