Denarau Island, Fiji 5 – 9 December, 2016

ETHICAL SOURCING FROM TUNA LONGLINERS

WCPFC13-2016-OP17 7th December 2016

Submitted by ISSF

Ethical Sourcing from Tuna Longliners

Matt Owens Tri Marine Director of Sustainability 12/6/16

Tri Marine Longline Commitment

- Work to eliminate illegal, unregulated, or unreported (IUU) fishing
- Require shark conservation and other nontarget species mitigation
- Improve data collection for better fisheries management
- >>> Protect against human rights abuses
- >>> Enforce commitments

Non-Target Species Mitigation

Tri Marine requires its suppliers to:

- Have a policy prohibiting shark finning
- Prohibit the use of wire leaders/traces and shark lines to reduce shark catch
- Only use circle hooks to reduce sea turtle interactions
- Train crew on best practices for non-target species handling and reporting
  - Tri Marine hosted workshops. E.g. Solomon Islands, November 2015

Data Collection

Tri Marine:

- Promotes the use of expanded logbooks
- Prioritizes direct delivery and logbook submissions in port
- >>> In rare cases of buying transshipped fish:
  - Requires copies of transshipment authorization
  - Requires proof of observer coverage
- Tests and implements use of digital logbooks
- >>> Trials electronic (video) monitoring
